Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.How? I asked myself. How do teens obtain mature wisdom to guide them through the troubled times of their lives? Where does the information come from? Friends? Books? Parents? Nowhere? My search for the answers led me to put down on paper my own life experiences and lessons and give it to my sons twenty years ago. I knew that the friends of my sons didn't have the experience or, frankly, enough experience on this earth to help guide them through life! Books? Which ones? I know that most parents are like I am. I would look at the books in the library and pick the ones written by an author I recognized. Did I know, really, that the contents would be helpful for my sons? No, but I thought who better than Mr. Famous author? So I bought the book, gave it to my teen son, and it sat on his bookshelf for years because I neglected to notice that it contained as many pages as the Library of Congress, and no teen in his right mind would even consider an attempt to plow through it. And, finally, parents? My usual conversation with my sons when I came home exhausted from work, and they from school, and sports and part-time jobs, consisted of: Hi, how was your day? Them: Fine Me: How was school? Them: OK, it was school, ya know? Me: How did soccer practice go? Them: Fine That in-depth conversation took various forms on different days, but it seemed that no matter what form, the amount of words exchanged could be counted on ten fingers. And I knew that, if anything, my conversations were typical...
