We soon passed out into the open country, which never looked lovelier to our eyes; the woods brilliant in their autumn dress of scarlet and gold, fringing meadows as green as they had been in May, and here and there long rows of tall, shapely pine trees of darkest green, standing like quiet sentinels at the edge of the woods. Above us were the cloudless skies as blue as azure - a perfect day, indeed, for a real holiday. After passing by several small villages, and many quaint little negro cabins, with their tiny garden patches, we came to the beautiful city. The charm of this old-world town, an hours ride from Baltimore, and an hour and a...
