Each couple is at a turning point in their relationship, where everything is about to change. The six of them have known each other since their college days in the late 1980 s, and have remained close in adulthood. Their friendships with each other lead to a healthy amount of humor and drama. From lovemaking to hearts breaking, career trouble to new business ventures, and from wild nights to fist fights, their bond is an unbreakable one. Skye's past, however, contains something much more sinister. A darkness they never imagined is about to descend on their world, and nothing will ever be the same. A...
