Divorcing at fifty and starting over in Virginia is far from being the hardest challenge in Dawn's life. Overcoming the loneliness and feelings for her ex would prove even more difficult. One night, over too much wine, her friend Cindy fills out a profile for the online dating site, for her. It's not long until a virtual flirt turns into an every night cyber date with a handsome man in Montana. Before the summer is over, Dawn finds herself hiking around the beautiful and wild front range of the Rockies, having a grand time and enjoying life again. Strange and weird things turn into terror forcing her to run for her life. Her only hope is to escape the madman and survive the wilderness. Lost and afraid, thirsty and hungry, she discovers her true courage and strength. is a story of a woman's will to live and love again.
