University of New Mexico Press. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, No Other Business Here: A Correspondence in Poetry, Steve Sanfield, John Brandi, No Other Business Here is the first major collection of the short poems exchanged between John Brandi and Steve Sanfield, two poets deeply situated in their respective geographies: New Mexicos Rio Grande Valley and Californias Sierra Nevada. These plaintive, often whimsical three-liners are full of chuckles and wakeups. Originally penned on scraps, postcards, in the margins of personal correspondence, even scribbled inside passports during world travels, these missives record moments of spark, fleeting essences of a transitory world, unavoidable folly revealing truths at the core of slapstick stumbles. Nothing sacred here These poets write to stay alive, to see where theyve been, to give clearing for the next step. An exchange of letters/no better way/to welcome the year Morning fog/hides the vacationing couple/but not their argument Sea lions/mating in the rain/no other business here.
