Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 78 pages. LIMITED FULL COLOR EDITION Church is a must-read for anyone who is curious about the houses of worship that seem to dot every street corner in America. Why are there so many churches What goes on inside those walls Is there a place for me that might enrich my life Author Dominique Baptiste, a noted Bible teacher and host of Biblical Essentials for Life Television Ministry, answers these questions and more in an informational, educational, and inviting manner. Unlike many books about religion, Church is unbiased, non-combative, and inclusive. Taking most of her lessons directly from the Bible, sprinkled with warm stories of her experiences and others, Baptiste explores the origins of church, who are the people who worship inside, what are they and why; and finally, what is their future. Unveiling her insights in a compelling mix of prose and scripture, Baptiste sheds light on the place that churches still have in our livesand inspires readers to discover their own spirituality, and renew their faith.
