Morgan James Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 252 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.9in. x 0.8in.Raised in a lower-middle-class family that only occasionally spoke of God, Fred Sievert received an unexpected visit from God when he was twelve. Despite his subsequent experiences as an adult, transitioning from a math teacher to the president of a Fortune 100 companya journey driven by an aggressive pursuit of the American dreamhis habit of thoughtful reflection and his spiritual longing from that one encounter in boyhood informed his decisions for the rest of his life. Whether it was during meetings with presidents of the United States, a chance encounter with a long-forgotten acquaintance, or on family trips, Fred developed a habit of prayer and listening. The significance of what he heard during these reflections, his choice of actions, and the experiences themselvesevents that seemed random at the timeonly became clear many years later. As he began telling the stories of his life to his family, for the first time he truly understood how every step of the way, and particularly during hardship and disappointment, God had been by his side, whispering, advising, and helping him make course corrections along his journey. In God Revealed, Fred shares these stories because they are stories about youyour longing, your disappointments, your successes, your need for balance. His stories are memory triggers for your own insights. They will prompt recollections in your own life, experiences you may not previously have realized were packed with divine guidance or intervention. Every life is a unique journey, says Fred, and by reading God Revealed and revisiting your past, you most certainly will enrich your future. Millions of Americans are driven to business success at the expense of both their spiritual development and their familys need for time and attention. The reflections...
