May court lawfully try and determine the case? Make a digest of the cases studied during the current course in martial law. This work is along the lines upon which this institution must be developed. Officers detailed for the Staff College must understand that their province is more that of creative education than that of simply acquiring knowledge. The idea of the department has been to inculcate habits in the officers of patient and thorough investigation and then make the officers apply the knowledge thus gained to the betterment of our profession. The military in aid of the civil power; martial law; military government and the laws of war. The course in these subjects is believed to be the most exhaustive given at any institution, native or foreign. Last year the students prepared a set of papers upon the subject of martial law. This year they prepared a set upon the subject of military government. These sets have been bound and filed with the department. This was done with a view of subsequently preparing a book upon these subjects. The loss of the instructor, Captain Kreger, has delayed this important work. But I recommend that this idea be not lost sight of in the detail of officers as instructors, and that at some subsequent time a suitable book be prepared on these subjects by the department. The library has only one set of United States Supreme Court reports and has none of...
