Mini Encyclopedia Science

By Farndon, John, Contributor. Parker, Steve, Contributor. Twist, Clint, Contributor.

Miles Kelly. 1 Paperback(s), 2014. soft. Book Condition: New. Did you know that tungsten has the highest melting point of any metal, at more than 6,000 degrees Fahrenheit? Or that northern fur seals form the world's largest mammal herd, at 1.5 million individuals? Or that the thrust of the Saturn V's rocket engines was 33 million newtons? This book broadly explores our scientific and technological knowledge, including matter and chemicals (atoms, elements, crystals, and water), electricity and radiation (electronics, color, and sound), and frontiers of science (quantum physics, nuclear power, and genetic engineering), as well as energy, technology, planet earth, plants, and animals. Illustrated with captioned color photos or drawings on nearly every page, this compact encyclopedia for readers 8 and up is stuffed with detailed information, making it an engaging refresher for adults as well. Each topic is presented in clear, bulleted points, while "Did You Know?" fact panels appear throughout. 384.
